January 31, 2015

Gentlemen and Members of the Saint Paul's community,

One of the greatest joys that we have in the Alumni Office is hearing about what is going on in the lives of our alumni which you will see is typically reflected in each edition of Wolftracks. I encourage each of you to send us any noteworthy updates regarding content such as collegiate information, professional status/developments/or advancements, marriage, birth of your children, etc., so that we may share your news with other members of the Saint Paul's community.

As always, we have a busy spring calendar with several alumni events fast approaching. It is still not too late to RSVP for the alumni luncheon on Tuesday, February 3rd. However for purposes of catering, please RSVP by noon on Monday, February 2nd. More information on the luncheon as well as on our upcoming departmental events is located on page 6 of this edition.

Attention, Reunion Classes: Any Class ending in a 5 or 0 that has not already begun reunion planning, please contact the Alumni Office at 985-892-3200 ext 1271 for ideas and assistance.

Finally, for those of you who enjoy tracking our Annual Fund progression, please refer to the updated Alumni Annual Giving by Class and for a list of alumni donors. (CLICK HERE) You may note that we have already eclipsed last year's total of 179 as we currently have 196 alums in support of the 2015 Appeal. However, you also may note that we still have work ahead to reach the goal of 300. Thank you so much for your continued interest and enhanced support of this cause, and I encourage you to continue to spread the word, the excitement with our progress, and the continued need of support to those who you feel will be able to assist. Another, goal is to have representation from at least one member of each graduating class from 1950 onward. If you do not see your class represented, please attempt to change that.

Should you have any further questions regarding this or any other material in this edition of Wolftracks, please do not hesitate to contact me.

For the Strength of the Pack is the Wolf, and the Strength of the Wolf is the Pack!

Rule One of Saint Paul's Senior Retreat: Don't talk about Saint Paul's Senior Retreat.

Rule Two of Saint Paul's Senior Retreat: Please refer to Rule One.

Saint Paul's Class of 2015 recently vacated campus en masse to travel to Alexandria, Louisiana and spend three days growing as a class. Further objective information concerning the Retreat is unavailable—except, of course, to those fortunate enough to have attended in the past.

Ironically, the Retreat's secrecy is probably its most famous attribute. Every Saint Paul's underclassman is all-too-aware of the transformative powers of those three days away; each year, the senior class returns from retreat with a heightened sense of unity and a renewed, highly infectious school spirit. But nobody knows exactly why. Students and faculty chaperones alike are pledged to secrecy, and rare is the accurate piece of information that manages to leak into public awareness.

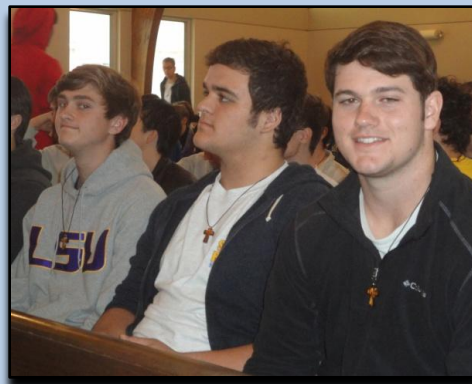

"When I was younger, I always thought it was pretty remarkable how everyone managed to keep all the details quiet," muses Senior Burke Irwin. "But, now that I've been there and back, I can totally understand. It's really something that has to be experienced. Words don't do it any justice anyway."

Underclassmen clamoring for clues are highly unlikely to acquire any—frequently, "disclosed" information is deliberately misleading. However, the secret memories of Senior Retreat are universally cherished throughout Saint Paul's extensive network of alumni. Seniors of this year's graduating class have entered into an Inclusive Community that extends far beyond their 184 members, into the ranks of thousands of graduated students and administrators who have witnessed the Retreat's indescribable power for themselves. The retreat was planned by Lee Pierre and Renee' Miller, faculty attending as group leaders with Lee and Renee included: Luke Barwick, Brother Ken Boesch, FSC, Christian Bobak, Andrew Dart, Robert Simpson, Al Nastasi, Paul Scoriels, Jim Robertson, Liz Brett, Gina Hall, Rachel Peak, Jeaneen Schmitt, Karen Hebert, and Carol Barcelona returned as the empress of snacks.

by Jack Dubreuil '15

The essence of the senior retreat is the small group, seated are: Caleb Peace, Ethan Rodriguez, David Doherty, and Logan Jean. Standing are: Drew Bratschi, Kameron Lange, Casey Fitzmaurice, Colin Hanley, Chris Rogers, Eric Fecke, Connor Lu, and Jacob McDonald

Eric Guin, Joe Mason, and Brad Clawson wear the hallmark senior retreat cross.

George Cazenavette Recieves Yet Another Superlative Recognition

Last year, he scored a perfect 36 on each and every section of the ACT. This year, he has been admitted to Caltech—already—and awaits decisions from several other ridiculously selective colleges and universities.

But for some unexplainable reason, George Cazenavette doesn't seem intent on stopping his relentless barrage of outstanding achievements.

The American Order of the Ancient Hibernians has decided, this year, to recognize high-achieving Catholic students in local Catholic high schools. The Order intends to select the most impressive candidates—one each from each Catholic High School in the Florida Parishes and award them with $500 scholarships recognizing academic merit in the context of demonstrated devotion to Catholic values and an essay on "What Catholic Education means to me."

Cindy, George V, George IV and Beth Cazenavette at the President's Assembly

Of course, Saint Paul's senior, George Cazenavette is the recipient. He was recognized Tuesday at a President's Assembly in front of Saint Paul's entire student body, the faculty, and his family. At the loud behest of all in attendance, he was handed the mic and prompted to give a speech: a humble "Uhh...thanks" that sent the gym into a supportive uproar. When that Assembly closed with an equally energetic run-through of the Fight Song, George had given students yet another thing to cheer about.

Forty-three Saint Paul's students, who have earned A score of thirty or higher on the ACT National Test, were congratulated with a pizza lunch on Wednesday, January 21. These students pictured at right are row one: Drew Bratschi, Gunner Young, Barrick Roberts, Ethan Desforges, Ryan Meraux, Max Gold, Luke Avenel, and Evan Baur. Row two: Jack Cheng, John-Paul Lea, Kevin Baker, Logan Buras, Andrew Mercante, and Jacob Broussard. Row three: Leland Van Deventer, Connor Rees, Beau Briggs, Waldon Perry, George Cazenavette, and Patrick Connolly. Row four: Aaron Nguyen and Hunter Simonson. Row five: Ben Dantin, Ben Toups, Jack Dubreuil, Michael Brands, Connor Lu, Parker Rice, and Keegan Lange. Row six: Harrison Prieto, Sam Giberga, Ryan Keller, Jean-Paul Juge, Peyton Burkenstock and Matthew Baldone. Members of the Plus 30 Club not pictured are: Ross Allbritton, Kyle Cleveland, Casey Fitzmaurice, Alec Gravelle, Burke Irwin, Philip James, Warner Moore, and Evan Young. In addition, the next day we celebrated 105 students that have increased their ACT score by two points.

Students who have earned a score of 30 or higher on the ACT.

Mu Alpha Theta

Saint Paul's annual Mu Alpha Theta induction ceremony took place in Our Lady of Peace chapel on Wednesday, January 21, ushering in a new generation of Mathematically gifted Wolves. The new inductees join a National society of young mathematicians who compete and collaborate amongst themselves in local, state, and national-level tournaments and conventions. For both of the past two years, Saint Paul's has taken Quality Sweepstakes at Louisiana's statewide convention—an award that signifies the highest overall mathematical proficiency per student.

The induction ceremony was facilitated by Presidents George Cazenavette and Max Gold, Vice President Jack Dubreuil, Secretary Rutger Fury, President-Elect Luke Avenel and State Board Governor John Cresson. Each officer offered a brief reflection on mathematics as a practice, discussing its role in the past, present, and future of civilization. Saint Paul's President Brother Ray Bulliard, FSC and Mu Alpha Theta moderator Susan Jordan presented certificates of recognition to: John Birdsong, Brycen Brown, Thomas Carriere, Nick Davis, Yehia Elkersh, Casey Fitzmaurice, Ryan Flood, Andrew Grashoff, Lloyd Guillot, William Heurtin, Regan Hill, Kyle Hladky, Charles Hughes, Brennan Jenkins, Sam Kenny, Bradley Mashburn, William Murphy, Alex Nguyen, Alex Oliveri, Liam Ordoyne, Alvin Satches, Koby Schexnayder, James Seese, Briggs Simpson, Shane Strander, Max Tepper, and Ashton Young. Mike Boudreaux, Pam Cullen, Math Department Chair, John Glorioso, Tiffany Kennedy, Kristen LaGraize, Richard Pichon and Audrey Pool members of the math department attended the ceremony to congratulate the students.

After presenting certificates, Brother Ray offered a thought-provoking reflection about numbers and their significance. The evening concluded with petit fours in the Cafeteria.

Celebrity Waiters' Dinner 2015

"The Swing Era"

Consider reserving a table NOW for our 15th annual Celebrity Waiter Dinner being held on Thursday, March 5, 2015 at 6:00pm. Celebrity Waiters' Dinner is the only event that funds Saint Paul's RENAISSANCE PROGRAM. This program sponsors several school activities such as the annual college tour and "Life Skills Day" for seniors. It also sponsors continuing education for faculty, the student chapter of Habitat for Humanity, honor roll breakfasts, and etiquette training for pre-freshmen students. The program funds academic extracurricular activities such as Mu Alpha Theta competitions, Wolves on Wheels, Robotics, and aqua robotics, just to name a few. It also funds a partial budget for the Development Office. To reserve a table, go to our website – click HERE.

The Briggs Assembly Center will come alive with dozens of tables for ten. The evening begins with a social, networking hour with students serving appetizers. After the social and prayer, the dinner event begins promptly. The purchase of a table provides a full course meal prepared by a local caterer, an open bar, the ever popular bottomless wine glasses, a live auction, 50/50 raffle, and a restaurant raffle.

Guests are encouraged to purchase Wolfbucks, dress in costumed attire and decorate their tables relating to the year's theme. Dance with your waiter or imitate the boogie woogie bugle boy for Wolfbucks! Awards are given for the top three table winnings, table decorations and costumes. Consider having your business sponsor a table or gather a group of friends and join us! For more information, please call the Development Office at 985-892-3200 ext 1270.

Proud of Our Scouts

Brother Raymond Bulliard, FSC, President of Saint Paul's School recognized a special group of young men for their dedication to the community outstanding accomplishments. Twenty members of the student body have completed the work and been recognized as Eagle Scouts. Pictured at the assembly in row one are: Ruston Keller, William Dugan, Chase Cochran, Oliver Sibley, and Josh Mascaro. Row two: Lucas Waldron, Parker Hagood, Sam Kenny, and Ethan Rodriguez. Row three: Ben Dantin, Alex Weiner, Leland Van Deventer, and Alex Harp. Row four: Ryan Meraux, Matthew Melancon, Garrett Grass, and Joseph Monahan. Row five: Casey Fitzmaurice, Ryan Keller, and Evan Young.

Wrestling Wolves – District Champs !

Saint Paul's Wrestling Wolves continued their winning tradition on the Northshore with a victory in the 6-5A District Duals for the seventh year in a row. Saint Paul's (4-0) defeated Northshore 80-0, Mandeville 70-10, Fontainebleau 46-27, and Covington High 67-6. Fontainebleau finished second (1-3), with Covington High in third (2-2), Mandeville in fourth (1-3), and Northshore in fifth (0-4). Craig Ketelsen serves as the head varsity coach for the Wolves.

Senior Barrick Roberts has been named Player of the Week by MaxPreps/NSCAA (National Soccer Coaches Association of America) for the week of December 29-January 4, 2015. The NSCAA will use results and statistics provided by MaxPreps to select one boy and one girl Player of the Week in each state across the country.

Barrick shoots for a goal.

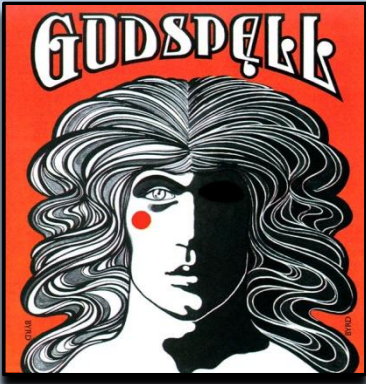

Varsity Soccer Head Coach, Sean Moser, has been selected to receive the 2014 Coach of the Year award for the state of Louisiana in Boys Soccer by the National Federation of State High School Associations. Sean was recognized by the NFHS for his outstanding contribution to soccer and to the students he coaches. Athletic Director Craig Ketelsen stated, "This is certainly a well-deserved honor. Sean has a unique connection with his players, and his results certainly speak for themselves." In 2011 and 2013 Saint Paul's finished second in the state, and earned the state champion titles in 2012 and 2014. Currently the Wolves are rated number one in both the state and the nation by Maxpreps.

Cross Country Wolves

Saint Paul's Cross Country Wolves recently celebrated their successful season with an awards banquet. Members of the team and their families joined for a meal and a night to remember the highlights of the 2014 season. Runners recognized for their outstanding contributions to the team included: Spencer Albright, and Stephen Schlottman, Outstanding Runners; Jack Verret and Jonathan Bertucci, Junior High Most Valuable Runners, Eric Coston, Varsity Most Valuable Runner; and Alexander Harp, Coaches Award.

Marian Players

The drama department, led by Denny Charbonnet, started counting down the days until the opening night of its spring musical Godspell which will run in March. The Marian Players, as the student actors are commonly called, diligently rehearse for hours to ensure a perfect performance. For more information, contact the school at 985-892-3200.
