Alumni, Parents and Friends of Saint Paul's School,

What a month! Many thanks to all who participated in Reunion Weekend and the 8th Annual Crawfish Cook-off. From the Jubilarian Assembly and alumni pinning celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Class of '67 while welcoming the Senior Class of '17 into the Alumni Association, to the individual class parties and the Cook-Off, the spirit of Brotherhood and the love for Saint Paul's School was palpable. We sincerely hope that you had as much fun in participation as we did sharing in the experience and in having you back to campus.

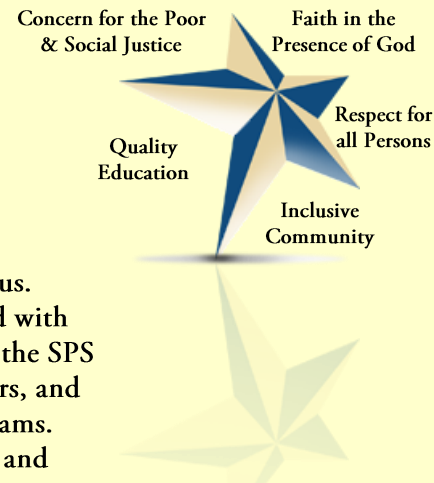

The second year layout of the Crawfish Cook-off proved to be a success paired with beautiful weather, the efforts of an incredible volunteer corps from Hope House, the SPS Dad's Club, faculty/staff, alumni, and friends, the generosity of our event sponsors, and the culinary prowess, hard work and spirit of competition amongst our boiling teams. Enjoy the further details and photos from the event featured later in this edition, and we hope to see you again next year.

Finally, the 2016/17 Annual Fund began last August and will end on July 31, 2017. As an adjunct to the appeal, we have re-instituted a Phonathon event which will be held on Wednesday, May 3 and Thursday, May 4 from 6 to 8 pm. On those evenings, you may be contacted by a fellow classmate in regard to updating your contact information, catching up on any recent personal or professional developments, welcoming your involvement with alumni events, and a brief overview of this year's Annual Fund effort.

Meanwhile, you are able to visit Our Website to support the fund at any time. The Pack is strengthening but can certainly stand to grow larger in regard to the alumni contribution to the fund. Should you have any questions, concerns, ideas or insights, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Live Jesus in our Hearts.....Forever!

Leadership Breakfast

Saint Paul's administration, faculty, and student body recognized the role of the outstanding student leaders with a special breakfast held in the cafeteria and sponsored by the Student Council. Student government, athletic, academic and extracurricular leaders were treated to a breakfast of Chick-fil-a sandwiches, fruit, and a stirring speech by Kim Winston Bigler, a 2017 Northshore Hero.

Mrs. Bigler grew up in St. Tammany Parish and graduated from Saint Scholastica Academy. She attended Louisiana State University and earned a BA in communications. Kim her husband Ben and son Phoenix moved back to Covington to establish another resource center here. St. Tammany Parish has the highest number of children in the foster care system in the state.

Kim addressed the audience with some very important words about leadership being an opportunity to serve your fellow man, and improve the situation of those in need. She also explained to the young men that the talent to lead and the ability to influence others is a gift and good stewardship of this gift is an important obligation. The student council presented Mrs. Bigler with a check for James Storehouse.

Saint Paul's
Renaissance
Program

On Monday, April 3, the class of 2017 participated in Life Skills Day, which was set up by the Development Office, and held in the Briggs Assembly Center. Danielle Lavie, chair of the Renaissance Board, which supports a number of worthy causes at school including: continuing education for the faculty, etiquette training for pre-freshmen, and support for a number of student clubs and activities such the Key Club, ACT 30+ Club, Lasallian Youth Leaders, Wolves on Wheels, Habitat for Humanity, and Mu Alpha Theta. Preston Hammons, Renaissance board member hosted the event. Other Renaissance Board members include: Miles Biggs, Shellie Campo, John Dubreuil, Eric Dunavant, Rick Flick, Liz Healy, Kevin Parkins, and Dr. Paul van Deventer.

The workshop lasted all day and covered areas that are essential for seniors living on their own. After being separated into four large groups by last name, the seniors rotated to four different discussions: "Debt Management and Identity Theft"; "Awareness, Actions and Consequences"; "Cash Management"; and "How to Be a Successful Freshman." Featured speakers were Eric Dunavant, owner of Dunavant Wealth Strategies, Chief Tim Lentz, Covington Police Department, and Brad Schroeder, Vice President of Capital One Bank. Mrs. Pam Prescott, Instruction and Educational Therapist from Southeastern Louisiana University was scheduled to present "How to Be a Successful Freshman", however due to an unexpected illness, was unable to attend. Senior teachers assisted with giving her presentation.

After two sessions, the seniors listened to a panel of recent Saint Paul's alumni. This panel consisted of Paul Hood and David Stechman '13, Nick Sibley '14, Drake Pierce '15, and Landon Waite '16. These graduates answered questions about college life, study schedules, internships, and student jobs.

After the discussions, everyone broke for lunch, a meal provided by Fazzio's Restaurant in Mandeville. Senior moms graciously served the meal which consisted of thinly sliced tenderloin over penne pasta, salad, and bread with fruit and dessert provided by the senior moms too.

Because of Saint Paul's deep rooted Lasallian values, alumnus Adam Martin, class of 2006, gave a talk about how to continue to live a Christian life throughout college.

Throughout the day, gift cards were awarded with the answers to trivia questions and random drawings.

Al Neuharth conference in Washington, D.C.

Saint Paul's School junior Carson Caulfield was selected to represent the state of Louisiana at the 2017 Al Neuharth Free Spirit and Journalism Conference to be held at the Newseum in Washington, D.C, June 17-22, 2017. The program was created to honor Al Neuharth, founder of USA Today, the Freedom Forum and the Newseum.

One representative from each state was awarded the opportunity to attend the conference, which includes comprehensive sessions with media professionals and news executives, as well as tours of important Washington, D.C., sites. The award comes with a $1,000 scholarship for each student to the college of his or her choice, along with an all-inclusive travel package to attend the conference, provided by the Freedom Forum in partnership with the Close Up Foundation.

Caulfield is currently the Sports Editor for The Paper Wolf, the student-run news site for St. Paul's School operated at www.ThePaperWolf.com both as a function of the school's journalism class and as an extracurricular offering. Caulfield began contributing to the digital publication in 2013 and is the site's top-read author, having garnered nearly 22,000 views of his work thus far. He has received awards for both his writing and his photography from the Louisiana Scholastic Press Association and helped the publication to achieve the "Best Newspaper" award from the statewide organization for 2016, as well as "All-Columbian Honors" from the Columbia University Scholastic Press Association.

This marked the second consecutive year that a St. Paul's journalism student was selected to represent the state of Louisiana at the Al Neuharth conference. St. Paul's senior Nick Ashton attended the 2016 conference last summer. Stuff the Bus

Saint Paul's students recently participated in a "Stuff the Bus" campaign to benefit the Northshore Food Bank with non perishable food items. Along with Saint Paul's, five other area schools donated items as well: Archbishop Hannan High School, Mary Queen of Peace School, Our Lady of the Lake School, St. Peter's School, and St. Scholastica Academy. Together, 10,088 pounds of food items were collected and unloaded at the Food Bank. Many of these items will be used for special Summer Stock boxes prepared for school-aged participants to be distributed in June & July when they are out of school. The remainder will be used in our regular pantry-item staple boxes for families. This service exhibits one of the Five Core Lasallian Principles of "Concern for the Poor and Social Justice".

Third Quarter Honor Breakfast

Saint Paul's School recognized the students who earned honor roll status for the third quarter with honor roll breakfasts during the week of March 27th. Instead of Brother Raymond Bulliard, FSC, President of Saint Paul's, selecting vocabulary words for the occasion, four honor graduates from the class of 2017 addressed the breakfast audiences. Alex Paille explained framtid (in the future), Alex Seese, taradiddle (pretentious nonsense), Shane Strander, exitus (outgoing) and Christopher Weintritt (geographical determinism) where one comes from determines who they will be. Parents and students alike enjoyed learning the new words and the breakfasts from Chick-fil-A on Highway 190.
