In 2012, at the bequest and generosity of the estate of Mr. Harry G. Friedman Class of 1933, a memorial plaque was designed and hung in the Eastern hallway in the lobby of LaSalle Hall. It was dedicated to the Memory of Mr. Harry Friedman and that of his brother, USA Lt. Col. Joseph Bernard Friedman, St. Paul's College 1935. Additional language on the plaque is as follows: "Honoring the memory of all the St. Paul's Alumni who practiced the values learned at St. Paul's by their patriotic service in the United States Military."

Over 150 Alumni are presently represented on the plaque which resides in the hallway of La Salle Hall adjacent to our current ROTC classroom. As Veterans Day approaches, we would like to once again petition our Alumni base to identify any additional veterans and give proper recognition to all who have served our country.

If you are a veteran and would like to be recognized on the plaque, please email your response to the following to aln@stpauls.com :

- Your name
- Branch of service in which you served
- The highest rank or rate attained
- Your year of graduation or years spent at St. Paul's

Further, if you are aware of a classmate or friend who served, please send us any information you have regarding that person including contact information.

Any active military, please let us know when your service ends, or upon retirement, in order to ensure that the accurate rank is denoted on the plaque.

Many thanks to the Friedman family and for our Alumni who have so bravely served the greatest country the world has ever known.

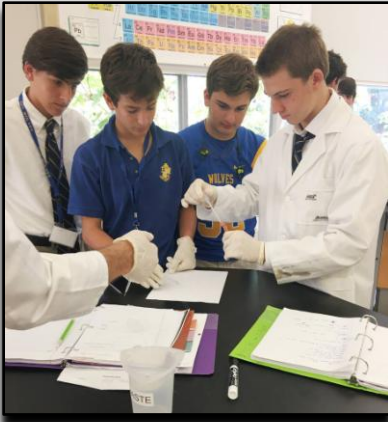

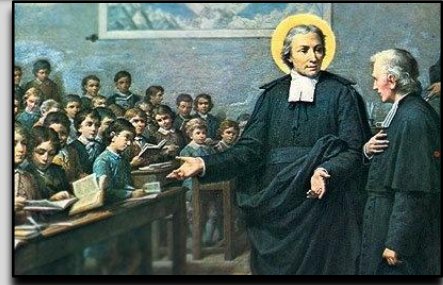

NOTE: The plaque will be updated annually, and the deadline for this year's submission is Veterans Day, Friday, November 13, 2017. The goal is to have the updated names available for display by our return to school the first week in January 2018.

If you are not sure whether your name is on the plaque at this time, or for any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact Al Nastasi at aln@stpauls.com or 985 892-3200 ext 1271.

2018 President's Annual Fund

Saint John Baptist de La Salle's original schools charged no tuition. Rich and poor alike were welcomed, and "charity" of benefactors and the donated services of the Brothers funded the schools. We can no longer offer "free" schools, but Saint Paul's tuition is one of the lowest among Catholic high schools – and a downright bargain compared to the private schools.

As we approach the 100 year anniversary of Christian Brothers education, we, as alumni, have a commitment to maintain this legacy. While we graduated in different decades, the foundation remains steadfast. For generations, alumni have given to the Annual Fund as a way to pay their education forward.

The faith people place in Saint Paul's is taken seriously, for Saint John Baptist de La Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers, insisted that the Brothers look upon their work "only with the eyes of faith." Your gift furthers St. La Salle's instructions to the Brothers that "Christian schools should be in no way inferior to other schools" and that parents who choose the Christian school should "not have occasion to regret that their children do not find therein all other educational advantages."

Founder's Week

Saint Jean-Baptiste de la Salle

Saint Paul's School is a community riddled with every type of person: athletes, scholars, leaders, and countless more conglomerations of personalities. Despite our many differences as a student body, there is one thing we all have in common-- Five, actually. The Brothers of the Lasallian Schools hold the "Five Core Principles" to high standards amongst all schools, students, and faculty. Faith in the presence of God, quality education, concern for the poor and social justice, respect for all persons, and inclusive community comprise what could be considered the honor code of the Lasallian Schools.

Monday, October 9, began with over 1000 students, faculty, and parents entering the Briggs Assembly Center for a school-wide mass centered around concern for the poor and social justice while highlighting our faith in the presence of God. At the beginning of mass, the traditional song of the Brothers, "Honneur a Toi" rang in through the speakers, followed by the harmony of deep voices of seniors to the higher pitched voices of the pre-freshman, loud enough to move anyone new to the sight of a Saint Paul's mass.

On Tuesday, quality education day, students were allowed to wear the college shirt of their choice. Schools of every tier, region, and focus were represented, from the expected load of purple and gold, to the one senior wearing a Carnegie-Mellon shirt.

Wednesday morning, students dispersed across campus, to six different prayer stations, from adoration, to meditation. Some services were led by faculty or retired Brothers, other led by students, including seniors Hanson Stuckey and Cameron Vidal.

Thursday was highlighted by guest speaker Ben Clapper, Chairman of the Louisiana Right to Life Foundation. Clapper showcased the “respect for all persons” core principle to the student body and faculty. Students were treated to a special pre-screening of the movie I Lived on Parker Ave., Clapper served as the Executive Producer, a film focusing on the life of Jesuit graduate James Scotton, an advocate for adoption, and a Pro-Life activist.

Friday capped the entire week off with loads of festivities like snowballs, Spikeball, and the annual field day, a competition between the five levels of Saint Paul's. Field day was opened with the traditional Senior-Faculty volleyball game. For the sixteenth year in a row, the staff taught the students a lesson, winning in three sets. Following volleyball, grade level competitions commenced, including tug-of-war, a balloon stomping game, and the classic basketball tournament. For the past three years, the class of 2018 has owned the title of basketball champions. Featuring star players like Parker Edwards, Luke Andrews, Colin Quinlan, and Nikita Daigle, Head Coach Luc Hebert and Assistant Coach Joel Fernandes led the class of 2018 to the fourth consecutive championship victory, beating the class of 2020 in a tight, fierce game that went all the way to the buzzer.

Saint Paul's celebrated one of the most important days of the school year on Friday, October 6th, Grandparents Day, sponsored by the members of the Saint Paul's Mothers' Club. The Briggs Assembly Center was filled with almost 1000 grandparents waiting for the end of class to locate their grandsons, dressed in their long sleeved shirts and blue and gold uniform ties. After the texting and the sorting finished and grandparents and grandsons were united the program began. As with all things at Saint Paul's, the program began with songs and prayer. Campus Minister, Jeff Ramon, organized a prayer service that began with the traditional hymn "Rise Up, O Men of God." A reading from 1 Corinthians followed by intercessions, a closing prayer, and the resounding closing hymn "This Little Light of Mine." Andrew Aceves, Briggs Cooper, and Brandon Gallego provided music for the program. Caleb and Brandon Nicotri, Landon Chambliss, Hanson Stuckey, Cameron Cluney, and Isaac Hebert served as readers for the prayer service. Senior, Lester Guttuso, presented a reflection on the importance of the relationship with his grandmother, touching the hearts of both grandparents and grandsons.

Brother Raymond Bulliard, FSC, President of Saint Paul's, conducted the second part of the program, which began just as every school day at Saint Paul's begins, with the morning prayer and Pledge of Allegiance. Cadets, Alvey Anderson, Landon Chambliss, Zachary Russ and Anthony Pennison, from the Saint Paul's Air Force Junior ROTC program presented the colors, students and grandparents alike stood to say the pledge. Then, Brother Ray formally welcomed the grandparents and used the Saint Paul's Mission Statement as the basis for the remainder of the program. He read the mission statement and made a few comments, and asked the students to explain such things as: assignment hall, silent reading, mission collection, and President's assemblies. The Briggs Center was filled with chatter and laughter as students talked about their upcoming report cards, sporting activities, and so many more things.

Grandparents and students were invited to a reception sponsored by the Mothers' Club. Tables filled with autumn decorations and lots of treats were neatly arranged in the rear of the building and the boys promised not to devour all of the food before their grandparents could eat. Elizabeth Kloczek and Annette McDougal served as chairs for this event. Members of the Mothers' Club circulated around the room taking photos with cell phones, to provide lasting memories of the day.

Thomas '21 and Daniel '22 Bitterwolf with their grandmother Sandra Bitterwolf. Thomas and Daniel's father, Mark, is an alumnus of 1983 and their grandfather, Gordon, was alumnus of 1954.

Danny Sears '22, son of Dean of Students Ken Sears, is seated with his grandparents Linda and Kenny Sears.

On Saturday, October 21 the Briggs Assembly Center came alive with music and fun with the twenty-eighth celebration of Jazz 'N Roll. The evening began with a pre-event patron party held in La Salle Courtyard and the Gahagan Garden. The beautiful weather provided the perfect setting for outside dining and socializing.

The event participants enjoyed the Jazz 'N Roll traditions of a silent auction and raffles, plus a buffet dinner provided by Gary Bonano Catering. Mobile bidding for the silent auction enticed the crowd to relax at our dining tables, eat a delicious meal while enjoying bidding with the cell phones. The crowd was entertained by the Bucktown Allstars with the evening ending with lively dancing.

The principle of “reasonable doubt” will be on display on Nov. 8-12 in the St. Paul’s Alumni Memorial Theater during the Marian Player production of “Twelve Angry Men.”

Written by Sherman L. Sergel and adapted from the television show by Reginald Rose, “Twelve Angry Men” is about a murder case with twelve normal people as jurors, but each of them has his own problems. A boy on trial for killing his father comes from a discriminated group, and everyone thinks he is guilty, but there is only circumstantial evidence to support his blame. The play focuses on the debate in the jury room right after the trial. The process of convicting someone will be on trial, as well.

“We’re doing this play because the real story involves honesty, truth and seeing people for who they really are without prejudice or any preconceived ideas,” Director Denny Charbonnet says. “As a Catholic Christian school, we look at one another through the eyes of God, seeing us as He created us to be.”

Charbonnet feels students who are studying law or capital punishment will find the play particularly relevant. In fact, the school plans to have the entire junior level attend a performance during the school day of Friday, Nov. 10.

“Last year, several of my students saw the movie, ‘Twelve Angry Men,’ in Law Studies class and asked if I would consider doing it for the fall. I prayed about it and felt like this was the right show for this year. I have been so pleased with this cast.”

Assisting Charbonnet is Barrett Baumgartner as the Assistant/Technical Director, Michael Boudreaux as Set Coordinator, Ellen Lipkos as Lighting Designer, Elise Angelette as Costume Designer, Jonathan Wellmeyer as Stage Manager and Sound Board Operator, Miguel Seruntine as Light Board Operator, and Callan Dannenhower and Michael Lucio as Crew.

Tickets are available in the school administration office (892-3200 ext. 1000), the Mother's Club bookstore, and Braswell Drugs on S. Tyler St. (892-0818). The show runs Nov. 8, 9 and 11 at 7 p.m., with a matinee performance on Nov. 12 at 3 p.m.

Eagle Scout

Recently, senior Robbie Nolan completed the requirements to earn the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest achievement attainable in the Boy Scouting program of the Boy Scouts of America (BSA). The designation "Eagle Scout" was founded over one hundred years ago. Only four percent of Boy Scouts are granted this rank after a lengthy review process. The requirements necessary to achieve this rank take years to fulfill. Since its founding, the Eagle Scout rank has been earned by almost 2.5 million young men.

Bradley Anzalone, Class of 2018, recently won second place but finished first in the 15th edition of the Italy Percussion Competition, an international competition for music composition. (No first places were awarded, the competition is based on points earned). Bradley, currently a student in Andrew Moran's Music Theory Class II, was the only winner from the United States. Bradley competed in Category D, which requires percussion music to be written for 6 performers.

Saint Paul's Junior, Andrew Aceves, auditioned for the Louisiana Music Educators Association Allstate Chorus in Pineville, Louisiana. He was awarded a place in the Mixed Choir in the Bass 2 Section. Only three students from the local district were chosen for the Bass 2 group and Andrew is the only student from a private, Catholic School in this district selected for the choir. Andrew performed "To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim" by Handel from his Te Deum as his audition piece. The Allstate Choir Concert will be Saturday, November 18th, at the Baton Rouge Crowne Plaza Executive Center at 3:00pm.

On Thursday, Oct 19, Saint Paul's Aqua Wolves successfully defended their Regional Championship title at Cross Gates in Slidell. The Aqua Wolves came in 1st in the men's division with 417 points scored. With seventeen schools participating, Saint Paul's outscored the second place team by ninety points!
