Marching Wolves—Sugar Bowl Bound

SPS Christmas Soccer Tournament

“Be alert, stand firm in your faith, be brave, be strong. Do all your work in love.”

SPS played an incredible game in the Christmas Soccer Tournament but Jesuit came out on top.

Christmas Angels

The Sophomore Class participates, under the direction of Coach Moore, in the Christmas Angels project.

The Gray Wolves

The St. Paul's Alumni Association recently partnered with the City of Covington to maintain the Columbia Street Landing Garden. Jimmy Dykes, Alumni Director, (Class of '61) stated ; "It was time for the Association to give back to the community ... our best way to do so was with our sweat equity."

Mayor Candace Watkins and City Councilman, Lee Alexius (Class of '63) suggested that the Association take on this project. The Gray Wolves are those alumni over the age of 60.

Jimmy Dykes, Alumni Director, '61 ; Eddie Leonard, '59 ; Chuck Harrington, '59 and Bill Leach, '62.

"You must be self-controlled and alert, to be able to pray."

National Honor Society

The SPS National Honor Society under the direction of Brian Logarbo, spruce up the Campus for Christmas.

Ridgely Dorsey, Beau Gamble, Harrison Richard, Jordan Daigle

Alumni Soccer Game

Several SPS Soccer Alumni returned to campus to play an Alumni Soccer game with the Varsity Team.
