Alumni News

Gentlemen and members of the Saint Paul's community,

It has truly been a pleasure visiting with so many alumni throughout the admissions season, the holidays and recent events. I sincerely hope that your start of 2020 has been an exceptional one and that it provides you with many opportunities to stay connected to Saint Paul's.

Where Are You Now? And How Are You Doing? – We are most appreciative of and interested in hearing from you. Please send updates including collegiate and professional achievements, marriage and birth announcements, and other noteworthy information to aln@stpauls.com.

Further, the Contact Directory Update continues to be utilized on a regular basis. Many thanks to those who have updated, and please encourage your classmates to do the same.

Finally, in keeping with the Lasallian mission and spirit, our goal is for Saint Paul's School to continue to remain accessible and affordable to all of the young men in our community who desire the same quality education and experience that we received while continuing to improve upon our physical plant, broaden our curriculum and provide our faculty with the necessary resources. The Annual Fund, described by local expert Frank Donaldson as, "the single most important Development Process that a Catholic institution could ever do" is critical to the success of the mission, and alumni support and engagement play a vital role. This year's appeal began in August of 2019, and most of you should have received a pledge card in the mail at the end of last year. We are sincerely grateful to those who have contributed thus far and appreciate the consideration of support for those who have not consistently followed the Annual Fund initiative. Please make note of the graphic on page 9 which illustrates a comparison from last year and need for support.

Should you have any questions about any alumni activities or the role of alumni support in our Annual Fund, please do not hesitate to contact me. If you are interested in supporting at this time, here is a link for your convenience.

What do you value most about your Saint Paul's education and experience? My favorite memory was actually Senior Retreat. The bonds that we had forged over the course of our time at Saint Paul's were significantly strengthened. It was an opportunity to get to learn more about my brothers and what it means to actually be a part of that brotherhood.

What is your favorite memory at Saint Paul's? My favorite memory is that Saint Paul's has given me lifelong friends and the camaraderie established with the younger and older students.

What advice would you give to current students or young alumni? I would advise current students to take advantage of all that Saint Paul's has to offer. Saint Paul's has all the tools necessary for each young man to create his own life the way he wants to live it. Being engaged in the culture of the school and its mission is critical in carving your path.

Why do you continue to support the Saint Paul's mission? I continue to support Saint Paul's because it has helped me so much in my own life and has undoubtedly impacted the lives of everyone who has graduated from there. It is a pillar in our community that continues to teach young men how to be pillars in their community.

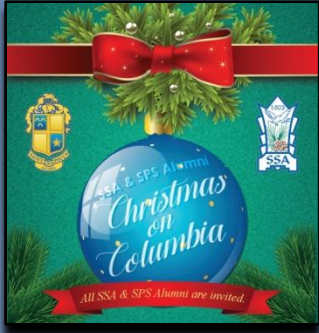

Why would you encourage young men to consider attending Saint Paul's? I would encourage young men to consider going to Saint Paul's because it goes beyond just academic excellence. It gives a sense of belonging that can't be found elsewhere. The relationships that are formed during your time there will be with you throughout your life.

What would you describe as your greatest takeaway from Saint Paul's? My greatest takeaway from St. Paul's would be to live a life of service and integrity.

Is there anything you would do differently with your Saint Paul's experience if given the opportunity to go back in time? Given the opportunity to go back, I would be more active in the various social clubs and groups that are offered.

Rise Up 'O Men of God

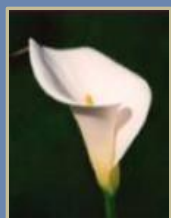

On December 31, 2019, our oldest living alumnus, Mr. Frank Lawrence Lombardo, class of 1937, entered into eternal rest with our heavenly father just 10 days shy of reaching the 100 year milestone. Frank was always and remained an ardent Saint Paul's supporter, consistently enjoying our monthly newsletter, regularly donating to our annual fund and maintaining a frequent correspondence with us through his own efforts or that of his family.

Tuesday, October 13, 2015, marked a truly special occasion as the students and faculty of Saint Paul's were greatly enriched by an assembly held in honor of Mr. Lombardo during Founder's Week. The audience was treated to a Brother Ray led PowerPoint presentation highlighting Saint Paul's in the 1930's including photos of the many sports teams in which Mr. Lombardo participated, his actual report card, and wonderful comments from the Brothers during his time here. Further, Mr. Lombardo addressed the students while beaming with appreciation and respect for Saint Paul's, and he encouraged them to "get all of the education they can."

He then experienced a campus tour most notably remarking on the turf field, La Salle Hall, and the original gymnasium (in which he actually played) giving detail of the layout of the building during his time here. We remain most appreciative of the time spent with Mr. Frank and his family and cherish the video footage captured from his address. See video and obituary.

You are 100 (%) in our books, Mr. Frank. Thank you for your love of Saint Paul's School, your service to our community and country during WW II, and for your unconditional Wolf Pride.

School News

The senior retreat has long stood as a testament to the brotherhood, connections, and history of Saint Paul's School. Deeply shrouded in mystery and held in secrecy by the administration and former students alike, senior retreat has been a topic that is often off limits until it finally approaches during the first week of January. On January 8th, 198 seniors and teachers from a wide range of departments loaded onto buses for their trip to the Wesley Center in Woodsworth, Louisiana. Faculty and staff for the event included: Luke Barwick, Barrett Baumgartner, Br. Ken Boesch, Liz Brett, Andrew Dart, Mimi Monteiro, Rachel Peak, Lee Pierre, Matt Pinero, Ann Pressley, Jeff Ramon, Paul Scoriels, and Emilie Travers. Along with beautiful weather, the students entered into a senior ceremony that stretched back years before their arrival.

The very core of the retreat is the small group setting. Randomly selected and extending across various clubs, classes, and sports, these groups are a real smattering of the culture and diversity of Saint Paul's. Teachers and faculty that have been instrumental in the seniors' journey through the school and have been with them for almost all five years lead the student groups. While most retreats focus on only religion or faith in students' lives, this retreat is more of an opportunity to look inward. Students spend time exploring their history and legacy at Saint Paul's as well as their personal lives and plans.

Second Quarter Honor Roll Breakfasts

Quality Education

Honor Roll Breakfasts at Saint Paul's is a long standing tradition dating back to 1989 when Brother Ray Bulliard began the first breakfast. For the second quarter recipients, the breakfasts were held on January 21-23 and January 27 and 29 and breakfast was provided by Mr. Rick Gonzalez of Chick-fil-A on Hwy 190 in Covington. Chicken and sausage biscuits were consumed along with orange juice, coffee and water. On Wednesday, January 29, the seniors gathered in the cafeteria honoring them for their accomplishments. Traditionally for this breakfast, a member of Saint Paul's Renaissance Board, speaks to the students about what to look forward to when they leave Saint Paul's School. Mrs. Danielle Lavie, Development Director, introduced special guest Mr. John Dubreuil, longtime Board member and father of Jack '15 and Walker '22. Mr. Dubreuil encouraged seniors 1) to thank their parents for choosing to send them to Saint Paul's; 2) to be thankful that Saint Paul's teaches how to have a relationship with God in your daily life; and 3) to understand that those that have been given so much in life, a nice home to live in and a wonderful education, are expected to be the best they can be.

Have you heard about Saint Paul's Renaissance Program?

Celebrity Dinner is the ONLY event that funds our Renaissance Program! The Renaissance Program helps fund non-athletic activities at Saint Paul's. Students are able to enjoy activities such as: Pre-freshmen Etiquette Class, Life Skills Class for Seniors, Honor Roll Breakfasts, Robotics competitions and field trips, and Wolves on Wheels competitions. Faculty and staff benefit from continuing education with proceeds from our dinner event. Renaissance also makes a contribution to our Tuition Assistance program for those in need.

What is Celebrity Dinner? Each year, the Renaissance Board selects a general theme for the event. Each table of guests selects their own idea pertaining to that theme, decorates their table, and typically attend in costume. Awards are given for the top 3 decorations and costumes. This year's theme is "IT's Friday Night Live". Interested in more information about our Renaissance Program and Board? Click HERE.

How do we raise money? We sell tables of ten! Sometimes business owners will purchase a table and invite guests. Other times, 5 couples will get together and purchase a table. Also, individual tickets may be purchased and you will assigned a table.

It's a competition too! Awards are given for Best Costume, Best Decorated, People's Choice table, and Top Table Participation. Voting takes place for the People's Choice of favorite 'all around' table of guests. Votes cost $1 and are available for purchase before and during the event. In addition, any Live Auction items purchased by a guest at the waiter's table will contribute to the Top Table proceeds.

Reserve your table NOW! Each table seats 10 guests and sponsorships are available. Seating is limited. Click HERE to reserve a table. For more information, contact the Development Office at 985-892-3200 ext 1970.

Last year's theme was "Flashback to the 70's". The night was very festive and we raised over $70,000!

Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra

The Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra graced Saint Paul's with two joy filled concerts on Tuesday, January 21st in the Briggs Assembly Center. For the 10:30 performance a number of elementary and middle schools both public and private attended the performance geared to middle school students. At noon, the Briggs was filled with the students and faculty of Saint Paul's. The opening piece, The William Tell Overture by Rossini, was immediately recognized by everyone in the room. Brother Raymond Bulliard, FSC, President of Saint Paul's uses this music at President's Assemblies when he reports on the victories and accomplishments of the Cross Country Team. The concert continued with some basic instruction about the definition and arrangement of an orchestra, a musical group that includes a string section. The musicians demonstrated the variety of sounds, the placement and, sizes of the various types of instruments, strings, woodwinds, percussion, and brass. The program continued with Sergei Prokofiev's "Montagues and Capulets" from his work Romeo and Juliet. Another familiar musical selection was Gustav Holst's "Mars, The Bringer of War" from his work the Planets. Students learned that classical works usually have four movements and the movements can be compared to the chapters of a book. The musical adventure brightened the day of both students and faculty and increased everyone's knowledge and appreciation of classical music. Additional works in the concert were: Corelli Concerto No. 6, Fanfare from La Peri, and Tchaik 4, movements 3 and 4.

March for Those Who Can't

Every year, hundreds of thousands of people gather in Washington D.C. to keep pro-life feelings alive in the U.S. and to continue fighting for all women who are reluctant about keeping their unborn child. During the week of January 20, approximately 630 high school students from the Archdiocese of New Orleans travelled by bus to Washington D.C. to participate in the March For Life 2020. Saint Paul's School was represented with thirty-six students, twenty-two travelled with Saint Paul's chaperones and another fourteen travelled with Mary Queen of Peace Catholic Church.

During the week, the students attended the Geaux Forth Louisiana Right to Life Rally held at the Warner Theater where multiple abortion survivors and victims gave speeches. Facts about abortion were introduced during the rally including how many are performed per day by state and region and the different procedures used to end an innocent child's life. This rally was an essential part of the pilgrimage as it prepared the students to stand up for what they believe in even through controversy.

On Friday, the day of the March, United States President Donald Trump gave an address making this the first time a sitting president has made an appearance at the March for Life. In his address, the President acknowledged "the tens of thousands of high school and college students" in attendance and called them "the heart of the March for Life." See complete Paper Wolf article. See Clarion Herald article.

Speech and Debate Club

On January 17-18, senior Hal Fox traveled to Lafayette where he participated in the Speech and Debate Tournament at St. Thomas More high school. Hal won third place in Extemporaneous Speaking, while also advancing to the quarterfinals in Advanced Lincoln Douglas debate. Perhaps more important than what occurred during the debate is what occurred after it. A man named Kevin from Lafayette came up to Hal after the awards ceremony and introduced himself as an alumnus of Saint Paul's. He greeted Hal as a family member and said how much Saint Paul's meant to him during the days it had boarding students and how he feels kinship with all alumni. It was very powerful to see how strong the connection was between this man and Hal and it speaks to the sense of community that is shared by all Saint Paul's alumni.

Soccer

Saint Paul's Varsity Soccer Coach, Sean Moser, has received the 2018-19 South Section Boys Soccer Coach of the Year award for his work. Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North and South Carolina and Tennessee compose the South district. This award is based on performance for 2018-19 school year, lifetime school and community involvement, and coaching philosophy. The Louisiana High School Athletic Association nominated Sean for this award and the award is presented by the National Federation of State High School Associations.

In addition to the recognition as the Section Coach of the Year, Moser has received national acclaim. He was awarded the 2019 Boys Winter Region Coach of the Year Award for Parochial/Private Schools on Friday, January 17th, 2020 at the 73rd United States Soccer Coaches Convention in Baltimore, Maryland. The National Chair of the United Soccer Coaches, J. Kevin Denson, made the announcement earlier in the year.

This is Moser's eleventh season as head coach of the Wolves, and during this time the team has competed in nine state finals, beginning with an appearance in 2011. Moser has been widely recognized for his coaching acumen with a number of awards including: two Sectional Coach of the Year titles, District, Metro, and State Coach of the Year Awards. His outstanding record at Saint Paul's is 289-23-17. Under Moser's direction the Wolves have won six of the last nine state titles.
