Alumni News

Gentlemen and members of the Saint Paul's community,

At this time of year, I typically call your attention to our mission statement which Brother Ray incorporates repeatedly throughout the school year, in particular the initial prong: Saint Paul's is a school which functions well, offering strong academic, athletic, and extracurricular programs in a safe and disciplined environment. A host of metrics including our continuous success in perfect ACT scoring on both a single subject and composite level as well as our consistent top placements at the literary rally substantiate that we are fulfilling the academic component.

As for the athletic standard, our Soccer Wolves once again find themselves competing for the State Title on Saturday, February 29. Wrestling just concluded with a 2nd place team finish at state, their highest ever in Division I, including one individual state champion, six finalists, and ten semifinalist. The Wrestling Wolves went undefeated in dual meets this year too. Basketball moves into the playoff with their first game on Monday, March 2 at the Gene Bennett Sports Complex, and spring sports are gearing up in Baseball, Golf, Lacrosse, Power lifting, Outdoor Track, and Rugby.

In checking the school calendar, you will see many opportunities to catch the Wolves in action. Check out our Athletic Web Pages for more information on a particular team of interest and opportunities to support them. Lastly, I think you will be impressed by the plethora of extracurricular opportunities for the student of today.

Alumni Breakfast: Join us on Tuesday, March 17 for breakfast, a General Alumni Meeting including a sneak peak at our upcoming new campus project(s), and a President's Assembly. Breakfast, provided by the Fat Spoon Café, will begin at 7:00 am in the cafeteria and the Assembly will end by 8:40 am. An optional campus tour will follow. Please RSVP to Al Nastasi at aln@stpauls.com by Thursday, March 12 for purposes of catering.

Crawfish Cook-Off and Reunion Weekend: On Saturday, April 4, 2020 we will host the 11th Annual Crawfish Cook-Off from 1:00 pm to 6:00 pm. Additional information and TICKETS are available now! We are truly blessed to already have a complete field of boiling teams and top level sponsors, but if you are interested in supporting the event by becoming a Blue Level Sponsor or volunteering to work the event, please contact Al Nastasi at aln@stpauls.com.

The Cook-Off will be held in conjunction with Reunion Weekend whereby Reunion Classes with years ending in 5 or a 0 will be in attendance. Several of these classes are planning to attend the Cook-Off and revolve their independent class gatherings around the event. Please CLICK HERE for a list of Reunion Class contacts.

Education: Bachelor of Arts in English Literature, and a Bachelor of Arts in Spanish Literature, LSU (2004)

Family: My wife, Abby, and I have been married for nearly 12 years. While we do not have children of our own, we are proud to be foster parents to children in our community.

Occupation: Vice President of Community Planning & Resilience with GCR Inc.

What do you value most about your Saint Paul's education and experience? The quality of the education was second to none; however, I most value the memories of my time at SPS and the friendships I formed while there.

What is your favorite memory at Saint Paul's? I have so many great memories from my five years at SPS. The road trips to tennis tournaments with Bro. Ken; seminars in Bro. Bill's class and extemporaneous speaking in Bro's Ray's class; the entire student body singing a rousing rendition of Rise Up, O Men of God; being a student host at Jazz 'N Roll; cheering on my friends at countless football games, soccer matches, basketball games, baseball games and other sporting events. It is difficult to pick a favorite memory, but I view that as a good problem to have.

Do you have any family members currently attending or who have attended Saint Paul's? My brother, Ben, graduated in 1998. I can't confirm it, but I believe he was a founding member of the Super Six.

Who was your favorite or most impactful teacher? To this day, I still hear Bro. Bill Parsons in my head when I am writing a formal letter or an email to a friend. He taught us how to think critically, write clearly, and communicate effectively. I once asked him for a thesaurus to reference while writing an essay during class. He responded by asking me for the word I intended to look up and simply said, "I am a thesaurus." Regardless of where my career would have gone, the lessons I took away from Bro. Bill were as important as anything I learned at SPS or beyond.

What advice would you give to current students or young alumni? To current students, you are part of something special—take time to enjoy it. Get involved and try things that get you out of your comfort zone. Work hard and have fun.

Why do you continue to support the Saint Paul's mission?

My father was an educator and administrator at multiple Archdiocesan schools, including two led by the Christian Brothers. I learned from an early age the significance of a high-quality education rooted in Lasallian principles. It is important to me that SPS continue to thrive, which is not an inexpensive endeavor. I have seen the improvements across campus, and I know that Bro. Ray, the administration, and faculty work tirelessly to provide current students with the same incredible experience I had.

Is there anything you would do differently with your Saint Paul's experience if given the opportunity to go back in time? I would have worked on my second serve a bit more with the hopes of winning the state tennis title. Seriously, though, I loved my time at St. Paul's and it is hard to imagine wanting to change a thing.

Time to get tickets!

Mardi Gras, French for Fat Tuesday, is the last day of the Carnival season as it always falls the day before Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent. Every year, Saint Paul's Marching Wolves entertain hundreds in the crowds along the parade route with their Southern Style show band. During the weekend of February 14-16, the Wolves performed in the Krewe of Cleopatra, Olympia, and Carrollton.

One of the highlights of the season takes place on the Thursday before the final weekend of Mardi Gras. The Marching Wolves parade through the aisles of Wal-Mart in Covington playing their music to children with special needs, pre-school children, the elderly, and guests so that they can experience watching the award winning Wolves.

During the weekend of February 21-25, the Wolves entertain the crowds in four New Orleans parades. They begin the weekend with the Krewe of Hermes on Friday, followed by Endymion on Saturday and Baachus on Sunday, with the pièce de résistance on Tuesday, in Rex.

Saint Paul's Core Pack students, L-R, Jacob Anderson, Michael Luccio, Luke Donham, and John Frederick Escher, excitedly wait for the Wal-Mart parade to begin with Core Pack Director Mrs. Lauren Gee.

Marian Players – Press Release

The Marian Players of Saint Paul's Theater are proud to present the classic Broadway hit "Damn Yankees" as their spring musical this year. The musical was a smash hit on Broadway, running for over 1,000 performances, and pulling in Tony Awards for Best Musical, Best Choreography, and Best Musical Direction, amongst others.

The musical combines baseball with a classic Faustian tale, as a middle-aged fan of the Washington Senators baseball team decides to sell his soul for a chance at becoming a young All-Star player, and leading his beloved Senators against those hated Yankees. In the end, he has to decide what is more important- leading his team to victory over a hated rival, or keeping his soul and returning to the loving wife he's left behind.

The musical is directed by Gordon Carmadelle, who is wrapping up his second season as Director of the Marian Players, as they follow up on last year's successful season. "Coming off the success of 'Newsies' last year, we wanted to give the audiences and our students something different. Where 'Newsies' is a more modern musical, 'Damn Yankees' is a classic Golden Age musical with songs that people have known and loved- especially songs like 'Heart' and 'Whatever Lola Wants'."

Assistant Directed by Barrett Baumgartner, with Musical Direction by Jonathan Sturcken and Choreography by Emily Carmadelle, the Marian Players have brought back the same creative team as last season. "I think the consistency was important going into this season. The students have really enjoyed working and learning under this creative team, so it was such a blessing to be able to bring them all back again."

In regards to the story itself, Carmadelle said "The story has been around for as long as time- man being tempted by the Devil himself. But this musical manages to weave in a really fun story about baseball, love, marriage, and a man facing the ultimate decision of earthly pursuits versus the eternal condition of his soul. It's a fun ride. And the same strong acting, vocals, and high energy dancing we brought you last year is back on stage again. These kids bring everything they have to these roles." Students from both St. Paul's and SSA make up the talented cast.

The show opens on Thursday, March 5 at 7pm, and runs March 6, 7, 11, 12, and 14 at 7pm, with a single matinee on March 14 at 2pm. Tickets are $15 for general admission and $10 for students, and can be purchased online HERE

Ethical Wolves

The state champion Ethical Wolves, known by their scientific name lupus ethicam, traveled to Houston, Texas on February 1 to compete in the Ethics Bowl regional competition hosted by the School of Humanities at Rice University. While it is their first year in existence, the team made a strong showing finishing in the top eight. The team had to articulate arguments about topics such as whether or not it is okay to punch a Nazi and whether or not an underaged cancer patient should be forced to undergo chemotherapy. Beyond the competition, some team members met with Dr. Kathleen Canning, Dean of the School of Humanities, to discuss the value of ethics in the modern world and were interviewed by the School to discuss their Ethics Bowl experience. The Ethical Wolves are very grateful to Drs. Beata and David Silvestri, parents of Michael Silvestri '21, for their willingness to help the team travel to Houston. The Ethical Wolves are moderated by faculty member and alumnus Shawn Mullet. The Wolves took a break from the competition and visited the Art Car Museum during their trip. Pictured are: Trent Ducombs, Max Anderson, Callan Danenhower, Michael Silvestri, Turner Land, and Zachary Nichols. Miguel Seruntine is a team member who was not present for the photo.

Coach Chatham Retires

Terry Chatham, Saint Paul's longtime Head Cross Country Coach, announced his retirement at the end of the 2019 season. He began his Saint Paul's coaching career in 2002; during his tenure teams earned 16 District Titles, a 2016 Regional Championship, a 2012 State Runner Up title, and State Champion Honors in both 2013 and 2016. Coach Chatham led eighty-three individuals to all-district honors with thirteen of those were earning the title of individual district champions. He also coached twenty-eight All-State Runners and three individual State Champions during his eighteen years as head coach. He also coached indoor and outdoor track during his time at Saint Paul's. Terry will retire to spend more time with his grandchildren, but will continue to assist with the indoor track program. Athletic Director Craig Ketelsen said "Terry developed a team culture in a normally individual sport. This culture developed athletes who were consistently successful, both on and off the course." The Christian Brothers, and Administration of Saint Paul's are grateful for Coach Terry's years of dedication and diligence.

Al Nastasi, 1991 graduate and current head track coach, will take over the Cross Country program in addition to his track duties. He served as an assistant Cross Country coach during the 2013 state championship year. He will be assisted by Kevin Moore, Social Studies teacher and long time Cross Country varsity assistant under Terry Chatham. See Nola.com article
