

The SPS President's Newsletter Celebrating 112 years of educational excellence in Covington 343 years of Lasallian tradition throughout the world April 7-14, 2024

Dear Parents,

Welcome to the Second Sunday of Easter!

In today's Gospel reading we hear the account of Thomas' doubts of the Resurrection of Jesus, despite what the other eleven disciples had seen:

Now Thomas (also known as Didymus), one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Reading this while sitting in Mary Queen of Peace Chapel on the Saint Paul's campus makes me wonder about the faith of the founding Brothers who had endured so much and had arrived during the worst possible circumstances to assume ownership of Saint Paul's School from the Benedictines. One would think that they had every reason to doubt their vocation and mission.

And yet, in the accounts by Brother Charles Crouzet that I have been printing in this and the last two newsletters, there was no doubt about their mission. Call it bravery, or stubbornness, or endurance, or faith, I am always amazed at the perseverance of those men that landed them here on these then remote and wooded acres to pick up the mission of Catholic Lasallian education in Covington.

I hope you have enjoyed the Historique de St. Paul's. Brother Charles makes their work seem routine, as though what they endured and did was just as things should be. If there was doubt in him or his confreres, it is hard to find in his Historique. I hope you are as inspired by it as I am.

Happy Easter!

GENERAL INFORMATION:

ANNUAL APPEAL: (OK, I promise to stop asking soon!) A couple of months ago, you received the Saint Paul's Advancement Review which contained the President's Annual Educational Fund Report. Many thanks to those who responded to the appeal. We invite you to review the listed businesses and individuals who generously supported Saint Paul's last year. Your support is essential to the continued quality of our offerings to our students and support of our faculty.

This year we invite you to continue or even increase your contributions to the Annual Appeal. If you did not contribute last year, I humbly request that you consider donating. For clarity, I offer the following:

- Almost all private schools conduct annual campaigns; many are high pressured; ours is not but we request your support to keep it from being high pressured.
- Your annual gift supports tactical, short term projects, e.g., technology, special programs, STEM equipment and supplies, unique one-time academic needs, teacher formation and professional development, minor campus upgrades and renovations, student activities, etc. in short, the necessary resources to ensure a superior education and first-class facilities for our students. A partial list of the items funded in the past two years include:
  - Kiln installation in Art Room
  - Wolves on Wheels funding
  - Stadium press box repairs
  - Landscaping
  - Chapel pew refinishing
  - Travel expenses for several clubs
  - Supplemental Funding for Student Clubs
  - Trophy cases in new gym
  - Carpentry Shop tools

- You may "pledge" your gift and pay later or in installments (monthly, etc.). More and more families are using automatic credit card monthly payments of $10, $20, or more dollars. GREAT!
- Gifts of stock are welcome.
- No gift is too small. I repeat: no gift is too small! What's important is that everyone participates. Of course, no gift is too large!

- If you are contributing to the Capital Campaign or financially supporting SPS in some other way, I understand! Thank you for your generosity. Will you send $10 to the Annual Fund so I can show an increase in participation?
- Please consider helping if you have not already done so and are in a position to do so.
- Please also consider asking friends or family who may be in a position to help. Thank you!

ANNUAL APPEAL AND GRANDPARENTS: We are blessed with many supportive grandparents. Many schools solicit donations from grandparents directly. Again, we do it differently than other schools that directly solicit grandparents. We ask that you inform your son's grandparents or, if you want, we'll be happy to send them the information directly if you wish. Just provide me with the information. We do not want to ask grandparents without your consent, but we need their support. I have already received a number of grandparent gifts. Again, no gift is too small – and, of course, no gift is too large.

BROTHER RAY MEMORIAL: Many ask what has become of the donations to the Brother Ray Memorial Fund. The short answer is that nothing has happened yet but it continues to grow as people continue to donate. I humbly suggest that a portion of the fund should be dedicated to the purchase and proper placement of a statue of Saint Joseph somewhere on the Saint Paul's campus. And, that this statue of Saint Joseph be dedicated to Brother Ray, both to honor the Institute of the Brothers and Brother Ray in particular. Thanks to those who have agreed to be part of the memorial committee. After Easter I will gather the group to begin planning. ADMISSIONS FOR 2024-25: We are extremely pleased with the number of applicants for next year! And, we continue to receive more applicants! Thanks to all who helped make this happen. Thanks also for spreading the good news about Lasallian education at Saint Paul's School! Congratulations to all future Wolves!

2024 - 2025 CALENDAR: The 2024-25 School Calendar has been posted. You can find it at the end of this newsletter. Please refer to this calendar when making vacation or other plans. Thanks.

SOLAR ECLIPSE: You should have received a note from Mr. Pierre about our Solar Eclipse viewing plan. In case you did not read it, we have a Solar Eclipse plan for our students on Monday. While teachers have been given very specific instructions of the plan, below is a summary of what we will do to keep our students safe while giving them the opportunity to view the eclipse.

- All students will be given instructions on dos and don'ts over the WOLF TV system prior to lunch dismissal. (The eclipse will not begin during lunchtime but we want to make sure students don't do anything foolish while outside).
- No student will be dismissed from class without an adult escort during the eclipse time.
- We will provide a safe opportunity for students to view the eclipse during periods E and F later in the day. They will be escorted in groups to Founder's Circle and given a short period of time to view the eclipse.
- Safety viewing glasses will be issued for students to view the eclipse. No other glasses, including regular sunglasses, will be allowed.

Please join us in stressing with your son the dangers of looking at the Sun without proper protection!

GATOR SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM: The Louisiana GATOR Scholarship Program will provide Education Scholarship Accounts that allow customizable options for parents to fund their child's education. These scholarships can be used for school tuition and fees, tutoring, educational therapies, textbooks and curriculum, dual enrollment courses, uniforms, and transportation. We encourage you to ask your legislator to pass this bill, empowering Louisiana's parents with the freedom to direct the education of their children. Use the link below:

Please consider this request from the Archdiocese! The GATOR program can help all Catholic school families that participate!

BLOOD DRIVE: The Spring Blood Drive was held on March 28 in the Briggs Assembly Center where fifty-one units of blood were donated. Saint Paul's students and faculty donated a record 112 whole blood units and 6 double red units collected this school year. Below is the list of donors. Thanks to all and to Dr. d'Hemecourt for organizing the drive this year!

SUICIDE & CRISIS LIFELINE: 988: On July 16, 2022, Louisiana joined the rest of the nation in launching 988, the new three-digit dialing code for the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline to make it easier for people to receive assistance during a mental health crisis. When you call (multiple languages), text (English only) or chat 988, you will be connected to trained, compassionate crisis counselors who will listen to your concerns, provide support, and connect you with local resources. The chat feature is available through the Lifeline's website (www.suicidepreventionlifeline.org/chat/). People can use

988 if they are having thoughts of suicide, mental health or substance use crises, or any other kind of emotional distress. People can also dial 988 if they are worried about a loved one who may need crisis support. 988 SUICIDE & CRISIS LIFELINE

LOST AND FOUND: Now that Spring weather is upon us, the L&F closet is full of cold weather attire! Tell your son to look there for any misplaced or "stolen" items. The Lost and Found Closet is located under the outside stairs behind the large wall at Founder's Circle. FROM THE FILES: Each week the newsletter will include a few historical events or moments of Saint Paul's School (College) captured by photographers through the years. The last two weeks I included the first eight pages of the Historique de St. Paul's. I received many positive comments from readers so I've included the last five pages. I hope you enjoy reading these as much as I have. As I wrote in my last newsletter:

Brother Charles was one of scores of Brothers who had fled for their lives from France in the early 1900s when the persecution of the Church and religious had reached a dangerous level. Given the choice of leaving his vocation or leaving his native France, he chose the latter. He and his confreres were sent to Mexico to found and run Lasallian schools in the rural, poor areas of Lasallian District of Northern Mexico. There they quickly learned a new language, culture, and educational system and within a few years were founding and running very successful schools.

Then, in 1916, they were forced to flee for their lives again as the religious persecution of the Mexican Revolution swept through Mexico. The notorious Pancho Villa himself forced the Brothers onto a train to the United States at gunpoint. Their community of twice-exiled Brothers were scattered throughout the United States in various religious communities while awaiting a new assignment. In this country their French and recently acquired Spanish skills were of little use so they again were forced to adapt to a new culture, language, and educational system.

In the Historique de St. Paul's, Brother Charles picks up the story of their community reuniting in Covington and assuming the ownership of Saint Paul's School. It is fascinating reading both for the heroic task that the Brothers assumed and for the description of Saint Paul's and Covington in 1918. The first eight pages were copied in my previous newsletters. I hope you enjoy this third and last installment.

Notes on the Historique:

- The term "L5" refers to the Theater building. It was called L5 during the 1970s since it was one of five (5) classrooms that accommodated large (L) sized classes. It was the first gym when built c. 1902. Today it serves as the Theater and is the only remaining original building from the founding of the school.
- Dixon Hall was the original school building built by Tulane University when the campus was Dixon Academy 1902-1911. It was destroyed by fire in 1981. It stood where Founders Circle is today. It has been referred to as "Main Building, Senior Dorm, or Dixon Hall" over the years.

Below are the last five pages of the Historique de St. Paul's.

held up very nicely, thanks be to God! With the sick boys two Brothers remained day and night to minister to their needs. The largest number of bedridden was 19 in that second floor. Fortunately no complications developed. Classes resumed January 27, with a completely new attitude towards the Faculty by the boarders who were won over by the devotedness of the Brothers during the epidemic.

The school year ended June 15, with a total of 83 boarders (including those that had left) and 43 dayscholars. The attendance to the commencement exercises was much larger than anticipated.

The boarders had a stiff schedule to follow. They were up at 6:00 a.m., attended Holy Mass at 6:30, had breakfast at 7:00, set up their beds right after, when to their respective studyhall until 8:30 when classes began. They had a 15 minute intermission in the middle of the morning. At 11:45 the morning classes ended. Dinner was at 12:00<sup>1</sup> and recreation until 1:00 on their respective playgrounds.

Classes resumed at 1:00 to end at 3:30 or 4:00; (I am not positive about that point,)for owed by a little snack and recreation. Studyhall at 5:30, then supper at 6:00 and recreation till 7:30. At 9:00 they retired. On Friday night those whose conduct had been satisfactory during the week could go to the show in Covington, in a body. After the show they had a few minutes to stop at the Drugstore (The City Drugstore) for an icecream or window shopping, if out of cash, and back to St. Paul's and the dormitory. Saturdays and Sundays began at 6:00, with no change until after breakfast, followed by a long recreation. On those two days there were only two study halls for letter writing, etc., etc.

During those years there was no high school athletic association or, if one existed, St. Paul's was not a member of it. The games played were with independent teams, most of them coming from New Orleans. The longest sport seasons were basketball and baseball, played in the present L5. Very seldom did St. Paul's team go out. The few football games we had were played on our football field. The first was against Bogalusa high school. Knowing that it was our first game, the visitors anticipated a 60-o score, or better. At the opening kickoff our center, Harold Johnson, (a 260 pounder) sent the ball very cleanly over the goal but it was not accepted so, it had to/played over again. Due to lack of experience, St. Paul's found itself at the short end of a 20-0 score. Nothing to be ashamed of, considering all the facts.

What terminated the "independent" teams connection was the fact that in 1928 one of our players died as a consequence of an injury suffered in football. The responsible player acknowledged his guilt, but it did not revive the unfortunate victim. At once all connections with independent teams were cancelled and steps taken to join the High School Athletic League. No difficulty was encountered and St. Paul's became a member of that league.

Picnics took place from time to time, mostly along the Bogue Falaya or the Tchefuncte rivers. When on the Bogue Falaya, almost always there was a delightful swim. If an allday picnic, two good swims took place; one before lunch and othe other in the middle of the afternoon. The Tchefuncte river was too narrow and too deep; besides, it was infested with aligators.

During the summer months a certain number of boarders from central America and Cuba remained on the campus. For them a more pleasant schedule prevailed. Thé picnics were more frequent; half-day picnics most of the time, but at least one full days picnic once a week. The members of the Faculty took part in that all-day picnic. Mandeville and, once in a while, Madisonville were the selected places. Mandeville was well liked because of the lake facilities for fishing and swimming. Other spots were visited for a change; in the direction of Bogalusa some small bayous were good for fishing and, if a fairly large pool was located, a cool swim was enjoyed. Except for long distances, train number 11 was the only conveyance.

In the year 1920-1921 a double transportation conveyance was acquired in the form of a 3-ton Republic truck and an Overland passenger car. Both of them were secondhand; both of them, also, were without self-starter. The Overland proved to be a dud! As to the truck, it had solid tires, therefore no danger of having a flat tire. It happened that at that time Jahncke Avenue was closed due to the installation of sewer and drain lines. What made the work so long is the fact that, on a large stretch of the avenue the workers did not find, on Monday morning, the pipes they had laid on Friday afternoon! They had disappeared, sunk in quick sand. The new work proved to be harder and longer than anticipated.

The road used to reach St. Paul's, from Covington, was South Jefferson Street, narrow and muddy most of the time. Frequently cars got stuck in mud pools and, frequently calls for help came to St. Paul's. The old faithful Republic went to the rescue. It never failed to pull out the stuck car, unless the tow chain or cable broke.. That truck, after a while, had only one driver who volunteered to drive it for cranking that motor was a "man's job!"

With the Republic the picnickers had transportation available to reach long distances. That explains the choice of Mandeville, and other such place too far to reach on foot.

The St. Paul's origins under the Christian Brothers would be incomplete without an introductory with BOY. Boy was the horse used to go to Covington on errands such as: to the mail; to the hardware store; the grocery story,; the railroad station, etc., etc. Almost exclusively Brother Prosper was the one riding on the buggy.

The St. Paul's grounds were Boy's domain, and he knew it, too! There was only one place that was closed to him: the football field. To reach it was a farm gate where a double chain is now. A post, on the left side had a hoop which could catch the post on the end of the gate. It sufficed to raise the hoop to engage or disengage the gate. Brother Prosper led Boy there from time to time, when the grass was attractive. There, too, Brother Prosper went for Boy before an errand. Boy looked up and waited for Bro. Prosper to get close. Suddenly he romped to a certain distance and waited again. That second time he did not run away and docilely followed the Brother. That maneuver occurred every time. If someone else needed him he had to run several times to catch Boy.

After watching Bro. Prosper a few times open or close the gate he thought: "Shucks, I can do that myself!" and he did it too from there on. At the west end of the stand was a drinking fountain (a bubbler). Boy saw the students drink there and again he must have thought: "I can do that, too!" He learned to turn the faucet on and cupped his lips right around the bubbler and waited for a mouthful of water, swalloed it and waited for another mouthful. It took a fairly long time for him to quench his thirst. At the end he walked away without turning the faucet off. Maybe he wanted the overflow to water the grass!

Not far from the wood tower was a chicken coop which Bro. Victor would open in the morning to let the hens run freely around. A corn feeder was on the outside, filled with corn. Under the can was a bar holding a grain of corn at the end of it. The chicken would peck on that grain and the bar would turn releasing a few grains of corn from the tank. Boy seemed to say in his mind: "A grains of corn is not enough to fill my little tooth! How does the corn get in that box?" He watched a few times while Brother Victor was filling the box. "I have it! knock the lid and I can reach the corn!" Sure enough, he had no trouble to knock the lid off and the corn was his. The only recourse Brother Victor had was to place the feeder under the wood tower.

Again, Boy thought: "That corn must come from somewhere!" A storage room, with all kinds of feed was nearby. It had a double door which was locked with a 20 penny spike. To open, Bro. Victor would push the right door a trifle and the spike's head could be grabbed and pulled out. After a few observations Boy learned that the right door had to be pushed in and the spike pulled out. Did he practice on that maneuver? Nobody knows, but Boy had the secret and he used it! A key padlock replaced the spike. Boy might have learned to open a combination lock; a key padlock stopped him because no key was given to him.

One night when two or three horse friends visited Boy, they had a grand time. Unfortunately quite a few fence wires were down near the feed bin. While trying to pass over them on of his hind shoes got tangled with a wire and there was no way to get disentangled. Instead of getting excited and, possibly, seriously hurt, he decided to remain very quiet until his friend came to the rescue. How many hours did hte way? Nobody knows. When Bro. Prosper arrived Boy did not make a single motion. Bro. Prosper raised that hind leg, pulled the wire from between the hoof and the shoe with no trouble at all. Boy moved away from the wires very slowly and cautiously as if wanting to reveal his "horse sence."

When the Overland car came into service Brother Prosper did not know how to drive and so, he continued the errands as before. I do not know what became of Boy after 1923.

Boy could have taught some very practical lessons to the students on how to observe and then use their mind to apply the observations!
